

CHME YOUNG GUNS 2018: HOSPITALITY STUDENTS OF THE YEAR AWARD

VISIT- WWW.CHME.ORG.UK/STUDENTS/YOUNGGUNS

Young Guns is a competition open to students completing hospitality degrees, or degrees with hospitality focused modules, which include work experience as part of the programme. Given you want to excel in the world of hospitality, entering this award could be your chance to demonstrate passion and drive, as well as the opportunity to get noticed by top employers.

Young Guns for 2017- Rosie Maguire and Leonora Brebner with sponsors and judges.

Key dates:

Applications open: September 2017

Closing date: 21st December 2017

Notification of Finalists: 26th January 2018

Judging, lunch and presentation of awards on

Thursday 8th March 2018

There are some fantastic prizes for the final 8 short listed and 2 overall winners including:

- Employment with a high profile hospitality business
- Networking lunch with industry executives - courtesy of The RAF Club, London.
- One year's subscription for the Caterer
- Attendance at the Catey awards dinner - courtesy of the Caterer

THE CATERER 🍷

- One year's complementary membership for the Institute of Hospitality

To enter the competition, please complete the on-line application form with a reference from your lecturer and work experience provider- include a short video of 90 seconds detailing why you feel you should win CHME Young Guns 2018.